MESSAGE

It is my pleasure to convey message on the platform of Sikkim State Allied and Healthcare Council, established under the National Commission for Allied and Healthcare Professions (NCAHP) Act, 2021. The Council encompasses 10 broad categories covering 57 distinct allied and healthcare professions, reflecting the diversity and depth of this vital workforce. Allied and Healthcare Professionals form the backbone of a resilient and responsive healthcare system, playing a crucial role in ensuring quality, accessibility, and continuity of care across our state.

The Sikkim State Allied and Healthcare Council will play a significant role in regulating and acknowledging institutions and professionals across the state, thereby ensuring the maintenance of standards, quality education, and professional excellence. Sikkim has always been committed to strengthening its healthcare delivery framework, and the contribution of skilled allied and healthcare professionals is essential to this vision. Their dedication, expertise, and compassion significantly enhance patient outcomes and support the overall efficiency of our healthcare institutions.

Health and Family Welfare Department remains steadfast in its commitment to fostering professional growth, capacity building, and the creation of opportunities that empower this vital workforce.

I extend my best wishes to the esteemed members of the Sikkim State Allied and Healthcare Council. Your collective efforts in regulating, guiding, and strengthening the professional standards in the state are commendable. I am confident that the Council will continue to play a pivotal role in enhancing the professional strength, uplifting the standards and ethical practice of allied and healthcare services in Sikkim.

With best wishes!
